6. TERMINATION AT OPTION OF PURCHASER
7. Purchase may terminate the Purchase Order, in whole or in part, at any time, by written notice of termination to Vendor.
  - (a) Upon receipt of the notice of termination, Vendor shall, unless otherwise directed by Purchaser, (1) terminate promptly all work under this Purchase Order; (2) transfer title and deliver to Purchaser of the finished work, the work in progress and the parts and materials which Vendor produced or acquired in accordance with the Purchase Order and which Vendor cannot use in producing goods for itself or for others; (3) settle all claims by subcontractors or suppliers for actual costs that are rendered unrecoverable by such termination; and (4) take actions reasonably necessary to protect property in Vendor's possession in which Purchaser has an interest.
  - (b) Upon termination by Purchaser under this section, Purchaser's obligation to Vendor shall be (1) the Purchase Order price for all finished Products and completed Services which conform to the requirements of the Purchase Order; (2) Vendor's actual cost of the work in process and parts and material transferred to Purchaser in accordance and with subsection (b)(2) hereof; (3) Vendor's actual costs of settling the claims by subcontractors or suppliers of subsection (b)(3) hereof; and (4) Vendor's absence of termination. Under no circumstances shall Purchaser be liable to Vendor for any other costs, including for indirect, consequential or punitive damages or lost profits of Vendor or Vendor's subcontractors or suppliers. Purchaser's obligation to pay Vendor pursuant to this section shall be subject to Vendor providing Purchaser with reasonable evidence of any such costs.
  - (c) Vendor shall furnish to Purchaser, no later than one month after the date of termination, Vendor's termination claim, which shall consist exclusively of the items of Purchaser's obligations to Vendor that are listed in subsection (c) hereof. Purchaser may audit Vendor's records before subsequent to payment, to verify amounts required in Vendor's termination claim.
  - (d) If Purchaser terminates the Purchase Order for reason of Vendor's default, Purchaser shall not be required to pay Vendor the costs described in subsections 7(c)(2) and 7(c)(3).
8. WARRANTY Vendor expressly warrants that all Products covered by this Purchase Order shall produce capacities and/or conform strictly to the specifications drawings, samples, or other description herein set forth and /or as published or warranted by the manufacturers for the Products, and will be merchantable, of good quality, material and workmanship, fit and sufficient for the purposes intended, and free from defects, latent or patent. Vendor further warrants that all Services shall be performed in accordance with the highest professional standards. Vendor shall take all steps necessary to correct the defects, deformities or nonconformities, including replacement of the Products or reimbursement of the purchase price for the Products or Services. Vendor agrees to replace without charge any defective Products or to correct without charge any deficient Services or remedy any defects not due to ordinary wear and tear or due to improper maintenance which may develop within one year from date of acceptance by Purchaser. All costs associated with such corrective actions shall be borne solely by Vendor. Any disclaimer of warranty, fitness for a particular purpose, merchantability, freedom from defects, or other disclaimer of the terms and conditions of this Purchase Order by Vendor in "Vendors Forms" is rejected and does not form part of the agreement between the Purchaser and Vendor. This warranty shall survive any inspection, delivery, acceptance and payment by Purchaser of the Products or Services.
